Arizona State University is a licensed IFMA education provider and offers the first and only 100% online Facility Management Professional (FMP) Prep Course, designed to fit in the working professional’s schedule.

Access to the course is available on demand (24/7), with IFMA FMP Certified Instructors providing the material. Straightforward videos are balanced with practical examples that prepare you to take your FMP Final Assessment to earn your FMP Credential. If you’d like to learn about the FMP, visit www.ifmacredentials.org/fmp

HOW CAN I GET MY FMP?
To get an FMP, most professionals enroll in in-person courses that prepare them for the FMP Exam. Depending on scheduling and your constraints, in-person courses might not be possible. In response to requests from professionals, ASU has developed and offers the only 100% online prep program of the FMP – there are no others!
